(b) how much cotton quota has been given to the State for export purposes;

(c) what are the reasons for offering low prices to the cotton growing farmers in Maharashtra under the Monopoly Cotton Purchase Scheme of the State Government which led to agitation; and

(d) how the Central Government propose to help the State Government in the matter?

THE MINISTER OF STATE OF THE MINISTRY OF TEXTILES (SHRI RAM NIWAS MIRDHA): (a) Government of Maharashtra have requested for export quota of 4 lakh bales in favour of Maharshtra State Co-operative Cotton Growers Marketing Federation Ltd.

(b) During the current cotton season, the Maharashtra State Co-operative Cotton Growers Marketing Federation has been allotted 55,000 bales of cotton for export so far.

(c) Under the Cotton Monopoly Procurement Scheme, the Maharashtra State Coopeartive Cotton Growers Marketing Federation pays guaranteed prices which are at the same level as the minimum support prices fixed by the Government of India. Earlier the Federation was paying guaranteed prices fixed at higer levels than minimum support price level. Hence, the fall in the prices initially paid to the cotton growers in Maharashtra.

(d) The Government of India will release additional cotton quota for export to the State at the appropriate time.
